

6th International Conference on Biocatalysis in Non-Conventional Media – BNCM 2020

University of Milan, Aula Magna, via Festa del Perdono 7
Milan, Italy

The Organizers of the 6th Conference on Biocatalysis in Non-Conventional Media - BNCM 2020 that will be held on May 7-9, 2020 in Milan (Italy), are pleased to invite you in this meeting that brings together outstanding scientists from academia and industry.

The conference is organized in five scientific sessions:

Flow-based bioprocesses

Multi-phase biocatalytic systems

Biocatalysis in non-conventional media

Water- and solvent-free reaction systems

BNCM: from lab to industrial scale

The program of BNCM 2020, under construction, will include internationally recognized speakers, oral and poster sessions dedicated to the selected abstracts.

We are delighted and very honored to announce that the Nobel Prize Laureate for Chemistry 2018, Prof. Frances Arnold (California Institute of Technology, USA), will join BNCM 2020 as the keynote speaker.

We are pleased to introduce the “BNCM 2020 sponsorship plan”:
